QUESTIONS

AS YOU LEARN THROUGHOUT THE SUMMIT, CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING

JAY GLADDEN, PH.D

- What strategies does your school or unit currently employ to increase one-year (Freshman to Sophomore) retention rates?
- What new strategies can your school or unit employ to increase one-year retention rates?
- How can faculty from your school or unit be engaged in developing new student success strategies?

ERIC WELDY, ED.D

- In regards to positively impacting retention, what best practices does your school or unit have that the rest of the campus community could benefit from the most?
- In what ways does your school or unit collaborate with the Division of Student Affairs? Are there new ways you would like to collaborate that might have an even greater impact on student success?
- One of the biggest challenges we face is getting students to attend our programs and/or to utilize our services. What steps have you taken to attract more students to your programs and services? In what ways have you been successful?

BOYD BRADSHAW, ED.D

- How do schools or units more creatively use institutional dollars to address the high level of unmet need, outside of our traditional merit and need based awarding strategies?
- What retention strategies within the Division of Enrollment Management can we implement to better support and engage students throughout the matriculation process?
- How can we better optimize the use of resources across schools or units to avoid duplication of efforts and make better use of dollars, people, time, etc.?
